CoolPro K3 (180GSM)

POPULAR USES

Schoolwear Polos and Shorts

DECORATION

Embroidery and 100% Sublimation Options Available

DESCRIPTION

A hugely popular choice for day to day Schoolwear polos and shorts along with many sportswear apparel items. This fabric is our CoolPro sportswear micromesh made more so for sublimation however now available for cut and sew options as well.

Most clients opt for this slightly heavier version of the K3 (150gsm) to help cope with the hard wearing nature of kids in school. We also use this fabric in side panels of polos and shorts in conjunction with the K8 (190gsm) fabric to promote more breathability to keep kids cool.

This fabric is cool and lightweight, has moisture wicking technology and is comfortable for all day wear and tear.

Rugby 1660 (315GSM)

POPULAR USES

Rugby Shorts

DECORATION

Embroidery and Digital Heat Press

DESCRIPTION

A tough and durable fabric to sustain the rigors of contact sport. A very popular choice for rugby teams and clubs all over Australia due to its light and comfortable feel and embroidery decoration options.

Clubs will generally choose between the more modern sublimated jersey fabric to match their jerseys or opt for this cut and sew fabric to maintain the more traditional rugby appearance. Both fantastic and popular products.
